

Gifting
that reflects you

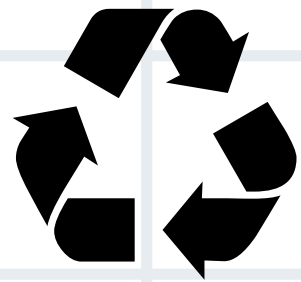

Urban Kalakari | Bulk Order, Gifting and Customization

The Power Of Customized Gifting

- A custom gift says you invested in them.
- Thoughtful gifting builds loyalty. Recipients are more likely to work with you again.
- Every time they use it, they remember who gave it to them. That's daily brand visibility you can't buy elsewhere.
- Recipients show it to others, talk about it, share it. Free word-of-mouth marketing.
- It reflects your company's values and identity which becomes an extension of your brand story.

Why Copper is the best gifting option?

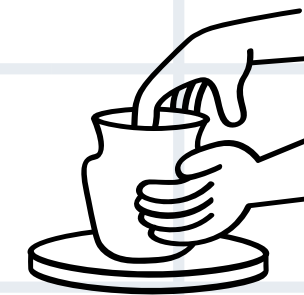

Promote Sustainable choice

Unlike conventional gifts, a handcrafted copper water container becomes a part of everyday life. It's reusable, environmentally responsible, and a thoughtful alternative to disposable plastic bottles.

Encourage Healthier Living

More than a beautiful keepsake, it's a gift that encourages healthier hydration through the timeless benefits of copper while showing genuine care for the recipient's well-being.

Support Indian Craftsmanship

Every copper item is handcrafted in India, supporting skilled artisans and preserving a beautiful craft for future generations.

99.8% pure copper

No metal clanking sound

No-oxidation

Light-weight

Why Urban Kalakari

A level-ahead in custom gifting

We Design Meaning, Not Logos:

We weave your brand's philosophy, vision, and the relationship with your recipients into a design so thoughtful that people spend time understanding it, not just glancing at it.

We Handle Everything:

One 15-minute call. That's it. We design, produce, quality-check, and deliver. No separate designer. No ongoing follow-ups. No headaches from your side.

Your Design Is Completely Yours:

Each client gets a custom design created from scratch. That design belongs to you alone. No other company will ever get it. It's never repeated.

Founder-Led. Premium Quality:

Founders run this personally. You work directly with us, not a generic team. Design is our core, not a side service. That's why your gift looks premium because it IS premium.

Copper Bottle Collection

According to Ayurveda

Water stored overnight in copper vessels, is beneficial for haemoglobin synthesis, Bone strength and immunity building. The mineral entered in copper, makes the water "ICHAUC" that helps to maintain the body's pH balance (Acid Alkalinity) & is also known as TAMELKULU. Ayurveda recommends copper bottle water to be used of the Thrice dosha (Body Humors Kapha, Vata & Pitta). Copper is an antioxidant and anti-Carcinogenic that prevents cell damage and slows aging. Copper has primary elements to protect health (pigmentation of eyes, hair & skin) in human body. Copper helps in regulating acidity & helps in regulating thyroid glands.
